How I like children and neighbors

I don't like the noise and hassle children make, but I'm way too lazy to demonstrate my discontent. So I drop out of their sight whenever it's possible. As for neighbors, I stay friendly as soon as they share food and don't cuddle me too tight.

Special things you need to learn about me

Yes, I'm housebroken. No, I'm not vocal. Sometimes I'm energetic and active (when my owner comes home, and I try to win his attention to get some food). I prefer staying inside, but when it's sunny and warm, I can spend a couple of hours outdoors so the world can see how shiny my fur is.
